Dear Julia:

Review status: Contracted Plate Search (CPS) system, Contract Application

CPS account information access denied:

Upon careful review of the information provided on your application, we determined that yours is not one of the permissible uses under which release of this information is allowed, pursuant to the federal law called the Driver's Privacy Protection Act (DPPA), 18 USC Sections 2721 and 2725; and state laws RCW 46.12.630, RCW 46.12.635, WAC 308-10-050(3) and WAC 308-93-087. On your application, you stated as your reason for access:

- I'm a licensed psychologist in Washington State. My practice involves forensic assessment. Occasionally, I need background information about vehicles depicted in discovery materials that I review while conducting forensic evaluations in criminal proceedings when this information is not already provided in police reports.

This use is not permissible according to the DPPA, 18 USC, section 2721, 3(A)(B) which allows access to personal vehicle owner information only to: 3) "For use in the normal course of business by a legitimate business or its agents, employees, or contractors, but only-(A) To verify the accuracy of personal information submitted by the individual to the business or its agents, employees, or contractors; and (B) If such information as so submitted is not correct or is no longer correct, to obtain the correct information, but only for the purposes of preventing fraud by, pursuing legal remedies against, or recovering on a debt or security interest against, the individual."

You may submit public disclosure requests for consideration on an individual basis using the Vehicle or Vessel (Boat) Disclosure Request forms. These forms are available on the internet @ dol.wa.gov under Get a form, Public Disclosure and Requesting public records.
